

Maureen Wayman's memories of the Hunt riding out from 'Caer Fedwen' on Boxing Day during the late 1980s. This was a highlight and many villagers were involved in the provision of background support. Though still a real enemy to farmers the fox was safe on this particular day as it was a 'drag' hunt, where the hounds follow an aniseed trail.

