

ARE YOU going over to Blackpool tomorrow night to see the Lights switch-on? Well, don't miss the Lancashire Evening Telegraph colour Lights Souvenir which will be on sale outside the Town Hall in Talbot Square. It's a fabulous 20-page magazine packed with scores of brilliant pictures of this year's Lights. There's a giant picture of Lancashire's own Gracie Fields who has come "home" to switch on. Ken Dodd, too, is featured in a zany picture strip. And Ernest Dewhurst has written a special tour-of-the-Lights article to make sure you don't miss any of the highlights. All this will cost you just 4d. So don't forget to get your copy of the Souvenir tomorrow night.
