

GRACIE OFF TO THE FRONT

Gracie Fields left Folkestone to-day for Capri, where she is to recuperate. She will break her journey to give two or three concerts to troops in France on the way. Many soldiers saw her off on the first portion of her journey from Charing Cross Station, London, yesterday, and gave her a rousing send-off.