

"Up till 1930 I had never lived abroad," says Gracie, "and I'd often felt homesick for Rochdale. Yet here in Capri I felt, at home"